

St. John Paul II Anti-Bullying Program

St. John Paul II has adopted the Bullying Prevention Policy from the Diocese of Camden and the Catholic Schools Office. St. John Paul II has combined their current program with this program to ensure a comprehensive approach. St. John Paul II has formed a committee made up of staff members and administrators that will oversee and manage any bullying issues. Each student will have access to an FYI (For Your Information) form to report any incidents. The forms will be investigated to see if they are deemed a bullying situation. Students will be able to fill out these forms in private to avoid any issues. The committee will look into each FYI and records will be kept for each incident. Disciplinary action will be taken as needed and may include detention, tracking, and/or suspension based on the incident. Parents will be made aware of any occurrence deemed bullying involving their child. St. John Paul II will not tolerate any form of bullying by one of its students.
